Your President's Report

So, if that was the winter, I can handle it. Guess that's the reason many of us decided to move to this neck of the woods in the first place. Good thinking!

Responses to our blue questionnaire are still trickling in. Lots of thoughtful comments. If yours is still lying around the house why not fill it in and pop it in the mail right now? And don't forget your membership while you're at it.

Lots of stuff going on in and around the District of Sechelt. One that may impact us directly through the Hidden Grove and the Heritage Forest is the "Community Forest" initiative. We're watching it closely and trying to have some influence.

Springtime and the President's thoughts turn to the Annual General Meeting. We usually hold it in May and, as usual, we will be seeking candidates to serve on the Board. Newcomers to the Hook are always welcome. Bring along your past experience and, hopefully some new ideas. Anyone interested should speak to one of the current board members whose names and phone numbers appear elsewhere in this newsletter.

Keep smiling'
— Gray Waddell

March 1st

Sandy Hook is cut over to the Grey Creek supply for a week or two to allow for pump changes which will help with pressure. There may be some colour in the water but it is safe to drink. Any service interruptions will be very brief.

Sandy Hook Park—New play gear.

If you have not been down to the park for awhile, it is worth a trip real soon. The holes are dug—the sand is in. The new playground equipment will be in and ready to play on. For 'us old codgers' there will be a couple of nice low swings to meditate on while the kids slide and climb and whatever. Special thanks to Julie Towle, long time SHCA director, for all her persistence over the years to get this gear in place. We hope you like it, Julie. Thanks too, of course, to the District parks people who showed great patience in dealing with us.

Also you will note some movement of signs and opening of the view as slowly the park gets more of a public appearance. This summer expect more improvements.

It is still not too late to send in your TRAFFIC SURVEY FORM—please do!

To Keep up all our community works, we need your membership too! Please send it.
